The Joyous Adventures Of Aristide Pujol

The Joyous Adventures Of Aristide Pujol WJ Locke

This 1912 collection of short stories is of lighthearted adventures of an irresponsible and irrepressible Frenchman in England and Paris. The author (1863-1930) was a popular British novelist, dramatist, and playwright, known especially for his short stories. Several of his works were made into London and Broadway stage plays as well as motion pictures (starring Mary Pickford, Judie Dench, Maggie Smith and more).
